Georgian Triangle Humane Society's "Kittypalooza" Adoption Event Returns

Annual event aims to find loving homes for every feline friend and create much-needed capacity for the animal centre to support more pets in need

COLLINGWOOD, ON (September 8, 2026) — The much-anticipated Kittypalooza adoption event is back at the Georgian Triangle Humane Society (GTHS). Taking place throughout the weekend of September 12 and 13 from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the GTHS Animal Centre (549 Tenth Line, Collingwood), this annual event offers the lowest adoption fees of the year: $150 for kittens, $100 for cats and $25 for special paws.

All adoptions include spay/neuter surgery, vaccinations, parasite treatment, I.D. microchip, and a health check by the GTHS veterinary team, ensuring pets are ready for their new homes.

The GTHS is looking to all cat lovers in the community to join them at the annual event to meet the adoptable kittens and cats and to provide them with loving homes.

With the recent transfers of animals from Northern Ontario during the wildfires and the arrival of almost 120 felines in August, the GTHS is at full capacity with nearly 200 pets currently in care.

"More than ever, our Animal Centre is filled to the brim with a high volume of pets needing support," says Karen Marsh, executive director of the Georgian Triangle Humane Society. "Through Kittypalooza, we hope to find loving homes for every kitten and cat. The adoption event will also help us free up critical space as more pets are coming in every day that require our care and attention, allowing us to continue our mission to provide compassionate care and safe refuge for animals."

As Kittypalooza is one of the most popular adoption events at the GTHS, community members are encouraged to arrive early and come prepared with a few favourites in mind as many get adopted quickly. To view adoptable animals ahead of time, visit https://gths.ca/cats-for-adoption/.

Adopters are required to bring a cat carrier with them, as all adopted kittens and cats will go home the same day.
